

English and British Values at Moira Primary School.

Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance
In the literacy classroom, we are taught to respect our peers and are encouraged to have the confidence to express their ideas and opinions. Through diverse and inclusive texts, children will consider what life is like for different groups of people as well as for others living in different times and in different countries.	In Literacy, children have access to texts which promote discussions about right and wrong and the consequences. Drama such as 'conscious alley' is used as it invites students to explore multiple facets of a character's choice within a specific dilemma.	Children are given the opportunity to develop self-knowledge, self-esteem and individual opinions. Through personal reflection on themes and character's choices in the text children will be able to reflect on different perspectives and choices and develop and understanding that everyone is free to have their own views.	Mutual respect is taught and given when children are expressing their thoughts and opinions about different characters within the text. Children are taught and encouraged to show respect to each other's beliefs, feelings and opinions by given each child a forum to share these on and an expectation that these must be listened to.	Children will be exposed to a range of quality texts which explore different cultures and the protected characteristics. Through a diverse and inclusive range of stories and non-fiction, children will be encouraged to reflect on their own faiths and beliefs and to appreciate that others may have similarly important attachments to different faiths, beliefs, worldviews and cultures.
